Terrance Simien & the Zydeco Experience August 12@ 7PM

Terrance and his loyal and skilled band mates, together have shared studio & stage with Robert Palmer, Stevie Wonder, Los Lobos, Taj Mahal, Dr. John, the Meters, Alan Toussaint, Paul Simon and Dave Matthews Band to name a few. Their music has been featured in TV commercials and a dozen or more films, including the blockbuster “The Big Easy” which changed the game for Louisiana music in the late 80’s. His music has been heard on NPR syndicated radio shows like World Café, American Routes, E-town & House of Blues Radio Hour. Rolling Stone, Billboard, and other notable music industry publications, as well as major daily newspapers have praised his recordings. His extensive discography dates back to vinyl 45’s.

Simien was born in 1965 (appropriately) into the hippie folk and soul music era that still intrigues him today. He was as influenced by Dylan and Simon and Garfunkel as he was by Sam Cooke and the Commodores. Since his family is documented in history books as one of the first Creole families to settle St. Landry Parish, his musical roots are firmly planted alongside the great zydeco pioneers like Chenier, Delafosse, Chavis, Ardoin and that other Simien, Rockin Sidney, to name a few. He counts himself one of the fortunate few who hail from a generation with a direct link to these artists, some of whom mentored him as an emerging talent.

2022 Gallery Exhibit

June 4 - October 22

"Living in Limbo: Portraits from the Border"

Presented by Bill McLaughlin

Copies of Bill's original photographs and prints are available for sale as is a book on the exhibit.

Bio

Bill McLaughlin is a self-taught painter and photographer living and working in Chenango County.

Artist Statement

My work as a visual artist has mostly expressed itself in my relationship to Nature and the land on which I live.

Several years ago while working on a project of monochrome landscape photographs of central New York, I gradually began adding portraits of the people I encountered while exploring locations to photograph.

It was during that time that I once again fell in love with the power of the portrait. The magical give and take between subject and photographer, the frozen moment, the direct gaze of a person caught momentarily off guard and voluntarily vulnerable-it was a harvest from the land I had not anticipated.

50th Anniversary Retrospective

Earlville Opera House (EOH) is celebrating 50 years as an incorporated nonprofit arts center in 2022 and we are celebrating the many talents of previous exhibitors!

EOH is home to three gallery spaces, the East Gallery, West Gallery and the Arts Café which annually present between 12-15 solo exhibitions of regional and national contemporary visual artists representing all media, and we host the beloved yearly Quilt Show. This year, we're hosting one special collective exhibit combining and celebrating the past beautiful creations that have highlighted our walls.

Artist Spotlight

50th Anniversary Retrospective Exhibit Artist Spotlights!

Our "50th Anniversary Retrospective Gallery Exhibit, 1972 ~ 2022" opened Saturday, March 19 with a very meaningful reception and runs through October 22 (gallery exhibits are always free and open to the public!).

This special collective exhibit celebrates the many talents of past showing visual artists who have highlighted their beautiful creations in the EOH galleries. Over the course of the exhibit, we are going to feature each participating artist!

Deborah Walsh

Bio

Deborah Walsh is an artist living and working in Upstate New York. Walsh studied art at Syracuse University where she earned a BFA in painting and MS in Art Education. She retired from teaching art in public schools and has since been an Artist in Residence at several schools where she creates permanent ceramic mural installations working directly with students and staff. As a lifelong learner, being a Docent at the Everson Museum of Art, participating in various classes and workshops has given her opportunities to continue her passion for art and education.

Artist Statement

I consider myself a contemporary photorealist, painting what I see, as I see it. Everything reflective and shiny interests me. Working from multiple source photographs, I am not concerned with recreating exact copies, but rather using them as reference for manipulation, heightening the impressions of color and light, perspective and depth to create an image that becomes more meaningful to me.

Britni Irons

Bio

All of my life I knew I wanted to do something with art because I have loved it ever since I was younger. But it wasn't until high school that I fell in love with photography.

Artist Statement

Beautiful things occur in nature and I want to show that to people there are beautiful things everywhere you look.

Favorite Memory

I had show here a couple of years ago and was really happy about it selling some photos. I have also been volunteering here for a long time.

Jill Kraft

Bio

Jill Kraft (Osterhout) (b.1982-) American painter born and raised in upstate New York. Influenced by both French and American Impressionism. Kraft is a sculptural oil painter who concentrates mostly on landscape and everyday life. She describes herself as an emotional painter who connects with her audience with the limited use of facial imagery in her work.

Artist Statement

My painting journey began one winter's night when my boredom got the best of me. I was raising three small children and my nights were full of sitcoms and mopping the kitchen floor. I often joke and say it was my calling. Out of nowhere, I had the desire to paint. I remember as a child I would often draw, compete in sidewalk chalk competitions and I eventually got into graphic design. For as long as I remember I had always wanted to be an artist. Little did I know that desire would take me down the most incredible, life changing experience.

Kenny Harris

Bio

Kenny Harris is an artist from Syracuse, NY. He's a professor at Alfred State College and has exhibitions at the Albany International Airport, Garrison Art Center, New Hampshire Institute of Art, The Chenango Arts Council and of course the Earlville Opera House.

Artist Statement

As an artist, I'm inspired by narratives. Stories depict the deepest desire, fears, and dreams of humans. From ghost stories to mundane adventures, stories relay what it means to be human.

Favorite Memory

In 2019, I did an exhibit at the Earlville Opera House. Since then, I have been assisting in paranormal investigations whenever possible.

Earlville Opera House Seeking Commercial Tenants!

acquired an adjacent building storefront which includes approximately 1400 square feet of space located at #8 East Main Street (currently under renovations). In addition, EOH owns #12 East Main Street, a 1000 square foot storefront. We are now accepting inquiries to lease these spaces.

In order to benefit both the tenants and the Opera House, we are looking for a business that relates to Opera House programming and/or can provide a meaningful service to the greater Earlville community. For example, a store selling musical related items, a shop that has occasional live music or has a musical or artistic theme, however all inquiries will be thoughtfully considered.

Call (315) 691-3550 to inquire.

GREAT thanks to the supporters of our historic renovation initiatives:

Community Foundation for South Central New York; R.C. Smith Foundation; Follett Foundation; John Ben Snow Memorial Trust; Preservation League of New York; Crawford & Stearns Architects and Preservation Planners; New York State Council on the Arts; Mark & Barbara Golden; Roger & Susan Bauman; John Grossmann; John Bailey; Bruce Webster; Bruce Ward, Architect; Richard Stringham; Jordan Ashcraft; Barnes Bluestone and many more!

Your beloved Earlville Opera House faced tough new challenges during the pandemic shutdown. With no shows, no workshops or classes, galleries and gift shop closed and the theater dark we lost major portions of our revenue.
