Livingston Taylor

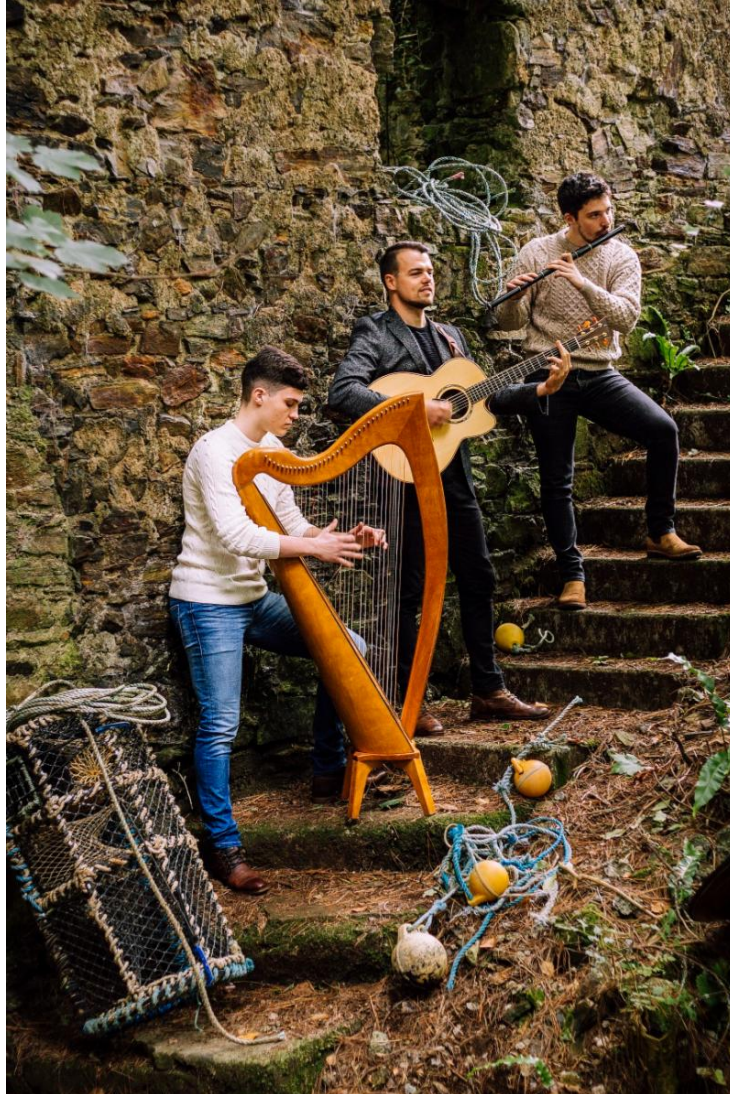

Sponsored by Bruce Ward Architect

June 1 @ 7PM

Livingston Taylor picked up his first guitar at the age of 13, which began a 50-year career that has encompassed performance, songwriting, and teaching. Born in Boston and raised in North Carolina, Livingston is the fourth child in a very musical family that includes Alex, James, Kate, and Hugh. Livingston recorded his first record at the age of 18 and has continued to create well crafted, introspective, and original songs that have earned him listeners worldwide.

From top-40 hits “I Will Be in Love with You” and “I’ll Come Running,” to “I Can Dream of You” and “Boatman,” the last two recorded by his brother James, Livingston’s creative output has continued unabated. His musical knowledge has inspired a varied repertoire, and he is equally at home with a range of musical genres—folk, pop, gospel, jazz—and from upbeat storytelling and touching ballads to full orchestra performances.

High Time

June 8 @ 7PM

This fresh new trio from the heart of Conamara, Ireland combines Irish music and an intriguing blend of modern folk influences to produce a rich sound and exciting experience to delight listeners.

Featuring an unusual line-up of flute, whistles, harp, bodhrán, guitar and vocals (with some Irish dancing steps thrown in!), HighTime make a youthful and energetic statement.

Equal measures of music and tradition from old Ireland coupled with bold new arrangements make for a tasty platter of story, music, song and dance from these three young men; All hailing from the village of Ardmore on the rugged west coast.

The Marigolds June 14 @ 7PM

Charismatic! Gwen Swick, Suzie Vinnick and Caitlin Hanford, three of Canada's top singer/songwriters, have combined their talents to form the Marigolds. The Marigolds are part bluesy, part jazzy, and part traditional country and bluegrass, specializing in angelic harmonies and gutsy playing. Delivering with skill and grace, the Marigolds are a roots-music super group in full bloom.

The Marigolds pack a diverse repertoire with a winning delivery. Each Marigold brings a unique gift to the musical table and, as a group, they run with it. They have fun on stage, and it shows. The past several years have witnessed the joy audiences have found in the Marigolds music and, thus, their rise in the Canadian roots music arena.

The Marigolds have a genuine affection for the timeless and classic genres of traditional country and bluegrass, Appalachian ballads and the blues. They celebrate this rich history on their second Juno-nominated CD, That's the State I'm In. The fourteen original songs are an inspired journey through lost love, found love, redemption and optimism.

Sherburne Music Theater Society June 15 @ 1PM

The Sherburne Music-Theater Society returns to the Opera House stage this summer for two separate performances! First in the line up is the Sherburne Community Chorus on June 15. The group will be performing a curated variety of choral pieces in their concert titled "Songs of Spring" and will even include the special addition of a children's chorus. The concert is at 1 pm with free-will donation admission.

Next up, SMTS is playing homage to Charles Schulz and his beloved Peanuts gang with the musical "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown." This family-friendly show will run twice on Saturday, July 20 with performances at 2:30 and 7 pm. A second matinee will also be performed on Sunday, July 21 at 2:30 pm.

The Sherburne Music-Theater Society is in its 51st year of bringing community members together to create and present high-quality, engaging theatrical and musical productions. Support from generous local businesses and individuals allows the tradition to continue. If interested in donating to the organization, please visit our Go Fund Me page at gf.me/u/rz2qiw

Presenting Max Eyle and John Driscoll
in our 2019 Courtyard Series
June 22 @ 1-3PM
Donation Event

Happening in conjunction with our next Gallery opening!

Inspired by Syracuse's long history of the blues, Max and John carry on the tradition as one of the area's foremost duo acts. Their use of the guitar, harmonica, piano, and vocals mix traditions from America's roots. The result is a refreshing blend of blues, funk, and New Orleans jazz. Both are native to the area where they currently live and perform.

Town Pants

June 29 @ 7PM

With a decades worth of headlining Roots and Celtic festivals to selling out nights at rock venues The Town Pants own brand of Celtic roots rock spans five albums so far, backed up with a legendary live show that's garnered them fans internationally from New York to Norway.

And while The Pacific Northwest may not be the first place you would expect to hear rollicking Celtic roots music, The Town Pants are determined to change that. The Vancouver, Canada based band combines aspects of Irish traditional, folk rock and roots Americana, fusing their signature dual lead vocals to create their own unique brand of high energy "West Coast Celtic." that remains in the heart and head long after the music stops. There are lots of Celtic folk rock bands out there, but rarely does a band have this combination of passion, energy, animation and spirit that makes for some of the most imaginative songwriting you'll find in the genre.

Kenny Harris

"Myths have the power to both reflect and effect the psychology of their contributing cultures. Through a developed creative language, mythology allows the human psyche to create the world anew, showcasing the human propensity towards imagination. It is through this creative process that a single species utilizes its imagination to attempt to understand its environment, regardless of cultural or external contexts."

Arts Café Britni Irons "Beauty & Nature"

"My goal is to inspire those who see my work to look more carefully at the world around them, to discover beauty in unusual places. I am enamored by all things, as they are beautiful in their element, but are often overlooked.

Photography is a journey for me, a quest to capture elements of nature and the beauty around me. I have loved Art since the first grade. I enjoy taking pictures and seeing peoples reactions to these pictures."

East Gallery Judith Giaque - Yahna "Pilgrimage"

"Nature has been my inspiration, my sanctuary and my guide throughout my life as an artist. Though my art has evolved and changed with the different roles I have played and the different work I have done, the underlying theme has been our return to a healthy relationship with "mother nature"; one that honors and holds her sacred."

Arts Café Ramona Kacyvenski "Life's Montage"

"I make art to enforce the value of creativity as a human activity. Art is a practice as old as humanity itself and in my studies as an art historian I have come to know art as an expression of social, economic, political, spiritual and emotional experiences of being a human."

West Gallery Donna Lamour "West Meets East"

When I was an art student in New York City, I was introduced to Chinese and Japanese art and design and became intrigued and enchanted from the beginning with the dramatic effect ancient masters achieved using simple homemade paper, ink, and brushes. The tools themselves have a rustic, beautiful aesthetic and are a joy to work with.
