EOH GRANTED $50K Capital Grant!

GOVERNOR HOCHUL ANNOUNCES $42 MILLION INVESTMENT IN SMALL AND MID-SIZED CAPITAL PROJECTS FOR ARTS AND CULTURAL ORGANIZATIONS

Largest Capital Awards Announcement in New York State Council on the Arts History!

Governor Kathy Hochul today announced over $42 million has been awarded through the New York State Council on the Arts (NYSCA) to 144 small and medium-sized capital projects. This record capital investment in arts and cultural organizations across the state supports crucial building renovations, accessibility improvements and new spaces for creative work.

"Strengthening our creative sector increases tourism, boosts our economy, and enhances the rich heritage and cultural life of New York State," Governor Hochul said. "These record grants will support a wide range of diverse and innovative projects at our arts and cultural organizations across the state, helping ensure all who visit will continue to have wonderful experiences for years to come."

Gibson Brothers May 12 @ 7PM

There's a reason why Ricky Skaggs pulled Eric and Leigh Gibson off the stage at the Ryman two decades ago and offered to produce their debut record. The same thing that led David Ferguson and Grammy Award winning producer and Black Keys frontman Dan Auerbach to co-write and produce their 14th album "Mockingbird" (2018) and release it on his own label Easy Eye Sound alongside cultural icons such as Hank Williams Jr. and Dr. John: the Gibson Brothers are the real deal. They can pick. They can sing. And they can write a d good country song. They've won about every bluegrass award you can name and released albums on almost every premier Americana label you can think of including Sugar Hill and Rounder, and, if that's not enough, their songs have been recorded by bluegrass legends no less than Del McCoury. It's a resume almost anybody in country music would be proud to have. But despite all of this, the Gibson Brothers are not yet household names. Their latest album, "Darkest Hour," produced by dobro master Jerry Douglas might just change that.

Steph Joyce "Crow Calls Twice"

Steph is an artist and researcher gathering moss in Leipzig, Germany. Through situated encounters and installations with material and temporal elements, such as textiles, objects, performances, videos, or audio pieces, Steph centers the aesthetics and affects of subjective and interdependent relations. Their work ambles in a space of non-linear speculation and somatic observation, aiming to resist normalized violence and move towards multi-species worldings.

Arts Café Bill McLaughlin "Face to Face: Portraits from the Precipice"

Bill McLaughlin is a self-taught landscape painter and photographer living and working from his organic homestead in New Berlin, NY.

"Face to Face: Portraits from the Precipice" seeks to explore and acknowledge the diversity and richness of our upstate community through portraiture. It is also a subtle reminder that as the voices of hatred and intolerance seek to divide us, that as a community, we share much more that unites us than separates us." -Bill McLaughlin

Earlville Opera House Seeking Commercial Tenant!

Earlville Opera House owns #12 East Main Street, a 1000 square foot Victorian storefront on the historic Douglass Block, and we are now accepting inquiries to lease this space.

This shop has been newly outfitted with a top of the line environmentally friendly and cost effective RunTru HVAC system (you can run it from your phone!). Rent is $675/month.

In order to benefit both the tenants and the Opera House, we are looking for a business that relates to Opera House programming and/or can provide a meaningful service to the greater Earlville community. For example, a store selling musical related items, a shop that has occasional live music or a musical or artistic theme, however all inquiries will be thoughtfully considered.

Become a Sustaining Partner

Your beloved Earlville Opera House faced tough new challenges during the pandemic shutdown. With no shows, no workshops or classes, galleries and gift shop closed and the theater dark we lost major portions of our revenue.
