November 5 @ 8PM

Virtual FUNdraiser

Join us for some post-election pleasure on Thursday, November 5th at 8pm via the Earlville Opera House's Facebook and YouTube platforms for a live musical performance by The Sea The Sea (Chuck and Mira Costa). The performance is a collaboration between EOH and Colgate University's Brown Commons Coffeehouse Music Series. This is a give-what-you-like event with all proceeds supporting the programs and services of the Earlville Opera House during this time of crisis for performing arts venues. A link to donate will be provided during the show.

The Sea The Sea is an Upstate New York based indie folk-pop duo-band featuring what Huffington Post calls, "Two of the loveliest male-female voices you might ever hear this or any other year." With the recent release of Stumbling Home, their third full-length studio album, The Sea The Sea firmly establishes their position as two of the most compelling voices on the indie folk scene. With a heavy dose of creativity and whimsy, they have crafted an album with a soundscape and narrative uniquely suited to their incredible harmonies. The song "Broken" was recently featured on NPR's "Heavy Rotation: 15 Songs Public Radio Can't Stop Playing."

Their 2014 debut release, "Love We Are We Love", also received praise from NPR, American Songwriter, and No Depression, among others, gathering over 15 million streams on Spotify. The animated video for their song "Waiting" sparked viral interest including BuzzFeed, Pitchfork, and inclusion at the international TED 2015 conference. Mountain Stage host Larry Groce calls them "ready to take their place among the best young male/female duos now performing." Their 2016 release, the six-song EP "In the Altogether", earned features by Apple Music including "Best of the Week" and "A-List Singer/Songwriter." Recently, Paste Music/ Daytrotter described the band as "defined by their infallible vocal harmonies and their unconventional song arrangements. The Sea The Sea is a pop band only in their melodic infectiousness—otherwise they are at their best when subverting conventions."

EOH and Brown Commons Coffeehouse are thrilled to bring these fantastic artists into your living room. Please join us for some downtime and let the music feed your soul with this incredible talent. The show is free for all! If you are able to contribute to EOH, donations of all sizes are most welcome and needed. Please visit www.earlvilleoperahouse.com to see how you can support and engage in the arts.

John McCutcheon
Sponsored by Bruce Ward Architect, AIA

November 13 @ 7:30PM Virtual Performance

From inauspicious beginnings, John McCutcheon has emerged as one of our most respected and loved folksingers. As an instrumentalist, he is a master of a dozen different traditional instruments, most notably the rare and beautiful hammer dulcimer. His songwriting has been hailed by critics and singers around the globe and his recordings have garnered every imaginable honor including seven Grammy nominations.

Join us for a special virtual concert featuring John on Friday, November 13 at 7:30pm by purchasing your low-cost tickets at:
[https://boxoffice.mandolin.com/collections/john-mccutcheon?
rfsn=4789503.cc8a04](https://boxoffice.mandolin.com/collections/john-mccutcheon?rfsn=4789503.cc8a04)

A portion of proceeds will go to supporting the mission of the historic Earlville Opera House during this time of unprecedented closure.

John McCutcheon has produced over twenty albums of other artists, from traditional fiddlers to contemporary singer-songwriters to educational and documentary works, and just released his 40th album. John's books and instructional materials have introduced budding players to the joys of their own musicality. His commitment to grassroots political organizations has put him on the front lines of many of the issues important to communities and workers. Join us in celebrating his music and be enthralled with John's engaging and charismatic personality!

Please visit earlvilleoperahouse.com to see how you can support and engage in the arts. This concert has been generously sponsored by Bruce Ward, Architect, AIA.

EOH events are made possible, in part, with public funds from the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature, and through the generosity of EOH members.

2020 Virtual Quilt Exhibit

October 10 - November 27

A Collaboration between the Chenango County Historical Society & Earlville Opera House

Quilts will be viewable through our website earlvilleoperahouse.com!

You are invited to a virtual Quilt Show on the Chenango County Historical Society and Earlville Opera House websites from October 10 through November 27. This virtual collaboration will highlight an exhibit representing quality and vibrant regional contemporary and traditional quilts celebrating the rich quilting culture across New York State.

This special virtual program will offer new perspectives on New York State's heritage and is being hosted to highlight historically and culturally significant sites along New York State's Path Through History during its annual fall weekend, October 10-12. The exhibit is also in celebration of the anniversary of the 19th Amendment giving women the right to vote.

The exhibition has an interactive portion in which viewers are encouraged to 'name that pattern' in a "Quilt IQ Quiz" for prizes. Viewers can also vote on their favorite quilting artist who will be invited for a solo exhibition at the EOH next year.

Visit earlvilleoperahouse.com or chenangohistorical.org to view the show!

Become a Sustaining Partner

Your beloved Earlville Opera House is facing tough new challenges during the pandemic shutdown. With no shows, no workshops or classes, galleries and gift shop closed and theater dark we have lost major portions of our revenue. Besides lost ticket sales, no shows mean no corporate sponsorship or advertising sales, and no concessions sold in our cafe, no merchandise or sales in our gift shop at intermission, and no gallery sales. But you can help by becoming a Sustaining Partner!
