

Enriching the CNY community through visual and performing arts since 1892!

Hello friends!

We have some very exciting events coming up in September including a high energy Celtic performance by Hellcat Maggie on August 30 to kick off Labor Day weekend; Low Lily on September 13; and our 6th annual Auction for the Arts on September 28.

Don't miss our beloved Quilt exhibitions accompanied by Kathy Glavin's Functional Folk Seating caned chairs either!

Please note: We will be closed on Saturday, August 31 in observance of Labor Day.

Hellcat Maggie

August 30 @ 7PM

HellCat Maggie is a high energy Celtic rock ensemble and our goal is to get you dancing and singing to our wide range of Irish/Celtic/rock music. We have seven seasoned musicians playing an array of instruments including fiddle, highland pipes, banjo, tin whistle and mandolin, all supported with a full rock back-line. Our combination of traditional Celtic instrumentation and high energy rock is a sure bet to get your jig on.

Low Lily

September 13 @ 7PM

Start with excellently matched vocals, add some world-class playing, sprinkle with raised-off-grid Americana and you get Low Lily. Flynn's deft flatpicking on guitar and mandolin and Lissa's virtuosic fiddle-playing are grounded by Liz's percussive rhythm guitar playing, the sounds of which combine joyously in this stunning ensemble.

With a vocal blend that has been dubbed "outstanding" and "meticulous," Low Lily's cohesive sound comes naturally for musicians whose lives have been entwined on the road and onstage for almost two decades. Setting down roots in Brattleboro, Vermont, the band has crafted a signature sound which they have shared with enthusiastic audiences throughout North America and the UK, garnering two #1 songs on international folk radio and two New England Music Award nominations.

Williams Road Band & Co. All Star Country Revue

October 5 @ 5-9PM

Featuring Nashville artists
Blaine Holcomb & Denny McCormick
with Dutch Hoke, Bobby Jewett, Patrick Strain & duo Barker * Blaze

A FUNdraiser for the EOH!
$20 advance tickets/$25 at door

Williams Road is a three piece roots band from the rolling hills of central New York. Their sound is a little bit of Bakersfield country with a mix of Americana. The band's unique songwriting represents life in the rural setting they call home. Pushed by strong harmonies and acoustic guitars at its core, add violin, electric guitar, and the pedal steel, and there is Williams Road. The groups influences are artists, Lyle Lovett, Tom Waits, Steve Earle, and some of the good old boys of country long gone.

Blaine Holcomb grew up in Hamilton, NY, a small rural town in Upstate New York, and from a young age, he loved singing along to country radio. Blaine began playing guitar at age 11 and his passion for traditional country music only grew stronger from there. By his early teens, he was already performing at local venues, singing with friends, and with a band he started while in high school.
